After carefully analyzing sports marketing in Serbia, we have decided to set new standards in regard to sport business. Our company is offering services of book keeping, accounting, law, media presence, finding the best way to communicate with sponsors, public and clients. Due to economic crisis many sport organizations and individuals have been lacking some services in their business. Time has come for sports organizations as well as individuals to get together and choose the same objective. We have a strong base of professionals who are either working for our company or are on a contract basis with us on a consulting level. Our mission is to be your strong link in doing business within sport organizations, and provide services on all levels. Our vision is to have their sport success and results molded into their real market value.

Projects:

Supersport.rs - We are presenting a new way of publishing information from domestic and international sports. Vision of supersport.rs is a combination of informative portal and news data with certain technical innovations where user will be able to get all basic info with one glance of the front page news about all the sports happening in real time, with ability to go to all the informative sites from one location, what is considered as a main function of news data.

Part of our portal is following news within our youth and academic sports in Serbia, with a special accent on the base profile of young sport talents, which are going under our "Supertalent" where they are able to publish their sports profiles - we intended this to become a multimedia date of various sports résumés.

H&S Total Sport Management - When it comes to football we are ambitiously cooperating with Austrian company High Potential Players KG from St. Polten. Our objective is to have a completely new approach toward players, based on complete service from us, to mature, to develop into the full potential and to find their respective football clubs where they can fulfill their sports career.

Sports scholarships

We represent agency Athletes USA the world number 1 agency for sports scholarships. One of our main goals is to enable Serbian athletes to study and compete on American Colleges.

Media consulting

We help our clients to reach wanted results by working closely and communicating with public relations agencies. With ever changing market we help navigate and find the best way to stay present in public eye and maintain the message our clients want to send to the public, weather as a club or as an individual.
